

Susan Prolman

ARTIST

- I draw and paint, with an emphasis on watercolor.
- My artwork appeared in the District of Columbia's 2019 Synergy exhibit.
- I designed a watercolor map of Historic Potomac Boathouses for an Arcadia Press historical book, Washington Canoe Club by Christopher N. Brown.
- I was a featured artist in DC Veg Fest 2019 and Takoma Park Art Hop 2019.
- One illustration received over 11,000 Instagram likes.
- My designs are sported by people in United States, England, Ireland, Germany, Sweden, Australia, and elsewhere around the world.
- I incorporate my art into other passion projects, such as my Activism for Animals website and presentation.
- I studied art at the Torpedo Factory Art Center, Arts Club of Washington, the Smithsonian Institution, and other education centers.

ADVOCATE

- Activism for Animals, Founder
- National Sustainable Agriculture Coalition, former Executive Director
- The Humane Society of the United States/Humane Society International, former Director of International Campaigns
- Union of Concerned Scientists, former Washington Representative
- US House of Representatives, former Legislative Assistant

ATTORNEY

- DC Bar, Member

ACADEMIC

- Georgetown University Law Center, Juris Doctor, Cum Laude
- Vassar College, Bachelor of Arts, Cum Laude